Test Protocol Summary

This is a test document for the Clinical Trial Protocol system.

Background:

This test document is used to verify the upload and indexing functionality.

Objectives:

- Test file upload

- Test document indexing

- Verify system functionality

Methods:

The document upload process involves several steps including file validation, text extraction, and vector indexing for retrieval.

Conclusion:

This test document should be successfully processed by the system.